

National Reading Month Activities

Activity 1: Cozy Read-In

Best for: all ages 0–5

Time: 10–20 minutes

Set-up

- Blanket/pillows + basket of board books and picture books
- Optional: stuffed animal “reading buddy”

How to do it

1. Teach a simple routine: “Choose → Sit → Read → Turn pages gently.”
2. Read one short story aloud.
3. Let children look at books independently or with an adult nearby.
4. Close with: “Show me your favorite picture.”

Adaptations

- Infants (0–12 months): 1–2 board books, point and label: “dog,” “ball.”
- 1–2 years: ask: “Where is the ___?” and let them point.
- 2–3 years: “What happened?” (single word answers are fine).
- 3–5 years: “What was your favorite part? Why?”

Activity 2: Story Basket (Props + Retell)

Best for: 1–5 (infants can explore safe props with supervision)

Time: 10–20 minutes

Materials

A basket with safe props that match a story (felt pieces, puppet, toy animal, scarf).

How to do it

1. Read the book once.
2. Show the basket: “These help us remember the story!”
3. Model: “First... then... last...” using props.
4. Children use props to retell.

Prompts by age

- 1–2: “Find the cat!” “More?” “All done?”
- 2–3: “Show me what happened.”
- 3–5: “Who was in the story? Where were they?”

---

Activity 3: Picture Walk (No-Pressure Reading)

Best for: all ages 0–5

Time: 8–15 minutes

Management tip

Use a signal: “Hands on head = freeze.”

Adaptations

- 1–2: copy one motion at a time.
- 2–3: act out one scene.
- 3–5: take turns being the “movement leader.”

---

Activity 5: “We Read Today!” Sticker Tracker

Best for: all ages 0–5

Time: 2–5 minutes daily

Set-up

Create a simple poster:

- A big book, tree, or heart shape
- Each day you read, add one sticker.

Extensions for preschool

- Count stickers together.
- Ask: “Are we close to our goal?”

---
